What our clients think...

“Just a quick note to say thank you for a great service. It’s great to speak to someone who took their time to explain rather than trying to get me off the phone.”

“Thanks for everything you did for us in fighting our case with the Revenue. Without your help we would have been facing a hefty bill.”

“Markel Tax represented our Company when we had a dispute with HMRC. They proceeded to win our case within a few months, and did so in a very professional manner. We could not have done this without their excellent help. In addition, they saved us from what could have become some seriously damaging effects on our business. We now have Markel Tax acting as major consultants for our business, and we would have absolutely no hesitation whatsoever in highly recommending them to anyone else.”

“Markel Tax provided support and guidance during what were stressful times...I am sure that without their expertise, help and guidance the investigation would not have been brought to a conclusion so quickly if at all.”
